EXCELLENT TRANSPORT LINKS AND SET IN THE HEART OF A BEAUTIFUL COUNTY

Finberry is a brand-new residential development with a traditional sense of place and identity at its heart, providing the ideal location to put down roots and become part of a community.

Sevington Lakes is the latest phase of this exciting new village development in Ashford, Kent – the beautiful Garden of England with its acres of unspoilt countryside. With a primary school and play areas already in place and the future development of a community centre, sports pitches and shops, residents living here can enjoy a perfect village feel with the comfort of modern conveniences in easy reach.

Imaginative landscaping gives the development a feeling of open space and makes you feel part of the surrounding rural landscape, which includes the historic Captain's Wood and picturesque Stour River and Meadows.

The village lies at the southern tip of the modern town of Ashford, which provides excellent facilities for your day to day living from a number of supermarkets and shops, as well as a variety of pubs and restaurants.

Sevington Lakes has truly incredible transport links to wherever you chose to go. After leaving Ashford International you could be enjoying a croissant in the cafés of Paris, or sampling a Belgian waffle in the centre of beautiful Brussels, in less than two hours.

With such a wide variety of places to go and visit you really are spoilt for choice here. Kent has a superb road network, and miles of cycling and walking routes. Why not experience rambling over the clifftops of Dover, or cycling around the hills of the beautiful Kent Downs. Alternatively, for the hottest high street names and designer brands, there is the fabulous Ashford Designer Outlet to explore.
