THE MANY ATTRACTIONS OF THE CHILTERN

This elegant collection of two, three and four bedroom homes sits within the foothills of the Chilterns, on the edge of a historic market town.

Recently voted by The Times as one of the best places to live and a regular winner of RHS Britain in Bloom award, Henley is a picturesque and highly desirable location.

Its riverside lends itself to relaxation: the perfect location for picnics, walks and boat trips. Pretty riverside strolls lead to excellent pubs. The numerous routes through the Chilterns take in villages that regularly feature in the ITV detective drama Midsomer Murders.

Henley is imbued with history. Its existing Thursday market is believed to have been granted by a charter of King John. Three hundred buildings within the town designated 'of special architectural or historical interest', including St Mary's Church, the Town Hall, Market Place and the 18th Century stone bridge. There's a pub where Charles I drank, a Chantry house, a butcher who smokes his own meat, a plethora of independent boutiques, elegant tea rooms and al fresco dining.

And Henley knows how to party. It is noted for a number of festivals, from the international Henley Royal Regatta to the '80s music festival Rewind. At the Festival of Music and Arts international artists perform on a floating stage to a dinner-jacketed audience, accompanied by food and fireworks. Henley's Literary Festival takes advantage of the town's central feature, with on-the-move river readings of poetry and prose.

Further attractions include The Old Fire Station Gallery and River and Rowing Museum, which is popular throughout the year due to the permanent Wind in the Willows gallery. The Kenton Theatre is one of the oldest performing theatres in the country.

The National Trust's Greys Court and Nuffield Place together with the Grade II Listed Park Place are a short drive away, as is the opportunity to sample sparkling wine and spectacular views at Fairmile Vineyard.
